When the contest for the handsome punch bowl at the Confederate Bazaar closed last night it was found that Mr. L. O. Wendenburg had been adjudged the most popular Elk, and he was donated the bowl, which has been such an attraction at the Kentucky table.

The bazaar was a busy place last night, and money poured into the coffers of the management in a silver stream. The University boys will arrive in Richmond this afternoon and the joint performance to-night will be the sensation of the week in Richmond, the University alumni, society at large and the friends of the Richmond caste combining to crowd the Academy to its utmost capacity.

Business."

The comedy is said to be the brightest, wittlest and most sparkling piece of work ever attempted by the Dramatic Club. The make of the ladies is simply fine and the acting most excellent.

In "Chopsticks and Spikins," Miss Moragan and Mr. Kelley, a very strong management indeed, have selected the best possible material with an eye to the finest results. North Carolina and Virginia have hitherto fought, the one against the other. To-night they will unite for the success of the common cause of both States and go in to win.

A great many tickets are being sold every day, but there are still a good many more low-priced ones on hand. They range in price from one cent to $1.50 a ticket. They can be gotten from the Maryland booth at the bazaar or from Mrs. John Moseley Walker, Mrs. Thomas Leary, Mr. Arthur Mayo, Mr. R. W. Spiliman and Mr. John M. Walker.

Those who have not secured tickets should get them right away, and those who have some should buy more, as they are very cheap, and the chance to win a beautiful rig like this does not happen often.

Bome of the imported creations not sold at the recent bonnet auction of the Maryland table, contributions from such wellknown modistes as Madame Stuart, of Baltimore; Hunt, of Weshington; Morris and Donald, of Richmond, may be seen at Mrs. Josiah Ryland's, No. 21 West Grace Street. Prices on these beguifful hats and bonnets have been reduced, and ladies wishing to buy would do well to see them before purchasing elsewhere.

Georgia Day.

Masonio or Georgia Day, April 27th, was a brilliant affair at the bazaar.

In the afternoon Mrs. Gill's boys gave an entertaining cake walk, and two beaut tiful cakes were awarded the finest performers. A nice treat was tendered the boys by Mrs. A. C. Becker, chairman for the evening, and every child present received a souvenir. At night, under direction of the Georgia committee; the Masonic Home children, trained by Miss Barbour, presented a most creditable programme.

The Shriners came to the bazaar in a body with their band, and everybody had a riyal time. A handsome silver-headed cane was voted to Captain Cunningham as the most popular Shriner, and a splendid cake, ornamented with the Masonic emblem, was voted to Mr. John R. Charlton as the ugliest Shriner.

Mr. Rogers, who guessed the lucky number—37—last Wednesday night, entitling him to the $50 silver bowl, is invited to call at the Georgia table and receive the same.

DELEGATIONS ARE OFF TO ST. LOUIS

Virginia Represented There by Many Distinguished Citizens.

Delegations from all the States are not moving on St. Louis where on Thursday the grounds and buildings of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition will be dedicated with imposing ceremonies. Virginia will be well represented. Besides the Virginia commission to the exposition consisting of Mossrs. Koiner, Bowman and Patton, Assistant Commissioners W. W. Baker, and George E. Murrell, Lieutenant-Governor Joseph E. Willard, Genoral Fitzhugh Lee, president of the jamestown Exposition Company and others have gone to the exposition city. The rear guard of the delegation left yesterday, accompanied by a representative of the Times-Dispatch. The last of the party will arrive in St. Louis by this evening and the dedicatory exercises will take place to-morrow. The pyrotechnicalisplay will be one of the finest and most unique ever known.

All the States have sent large delega-tions to the dedicatory services. New York will outshine them all, Governor Odell being accompanied by a military escort of one thousand troops of the Na-tional Guard of the State. Virginia's will not be the smallest delegation and in point of personnel, will rank with any of them.

Street or Field Preaching.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:
Sir.—Fourteen of the seventeen years of my ministry has been spent in the pastorate, preaching only from the pulpit within church buildings, except in som rare within cauren buildings, except in some accases of tent and school-house preaching. In all of these years I believed in out-door preaching almost as much as I believe in it now, after three years as superintendent of a city mission work, where hundreds of our services are held where hundreds of our services are held on the streets. I believed in it always because one-half of the people will not go to church, and will never be reached unless in some other way they get under the gospol. I now believe in it for this reason, and for the added reason that a large per cent, of those who refuse to attend church or even hall services will go to field and corner and tent (if the flaps are holsted) to hear the gospol and in large numbers will be saved; this I know becaus, it has occurred under our very eyes here in Richmond every summer with increasing results for the past three years, since we hoisted the small round tent on our lot at the back of the mission on Nineteenth and Main Street, which was changed for

Al, C. A. and the mission. In all of this out-door work there has been much of what is more strictly speaking "street meetings," where with drum and cymbal and song the crowd is gathered and afterwards the word is preached. More of this work should be done, and I invite those who have instruments and grace to confer with me. We need more workers to go with the Saturday midnight band, others for the ordinary street meeting at 7.30 o'clock, and more than either, some Godly non and women to hold services in our various parks on Sunday afternoon. This is fanaticism in the eyes of the half in carnest, but I would risk my life that Christ would approve this sentiment. Will he glad to hear from those who would play instruments or talk or stand for God in such services.

GOVERNMENT SHOULD ACT

Convention in St. Louis.

People in Country, Says Mr. Bryan, Pay Their Quota of Taxes and Should Get Some of Benefits of Their Expenditures.

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, MO., April 25.—At the soond day's session of the National and International Good Roads Convention, General Nelson A. Miles, who is president of the National Highway Commission, made an address on "Milliary Roads and a National Highway." and said in part:

"Our government has expended $600,000,000 for the improvement of our harbors and waterways, and now the attention of the public is being called to our postal roads and avenues of communication that are most useful and important to all our people.

"If such expenditures of the national treasure have been made in the past for the development of railroads and waterways, is it not now a most appropriate time that the improvement of our roads should receive national attention and governmental aid?"

Ex. Governor Hogg, of Texas, pointed out the necessity for good roads, which, he believed, could be secured only through the aid of the national government. He spoke of the insular policy of the government, and said if some of the morey that is being squandored in the Philippinas could be used here in the improvement of highways our roads would be in far better condition.

OVATION TO BRYAN.

William J. Bryan spoke at the afternoon session, receiving an ovation. He said in part:

"The expenditure of money for the permanent improvement of the common roads can be defended, first, as a matter of justice to the people who do not live in the country, second, as a matter of advantage to the people who do not live in the country, and third, on the ground that the conforts of country life shall, as far as possible, keep pace with the comforts of country life shall, as far as possible, keep pace with the country, while paying their full share of country, wh

HIS BIBLE RETURNED

Mr. Boxley Receives a Valued Copy

Lost During War,

Lost During War.

Mr. Joseph C. Boxley, a well known contractor of this city, has recently had returned to him a Bible lost during the war. The story of the discovery and return of the highly prized volume is told in the following letter to The Times-Dispatch:

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

Sir,—in your valuable paper a few months ago there appeared a notice of a lost Bible addressed to our postmaster, Mr. Knight, expressing the desire to communicate with the owner, if living, and if not with some relative, for the return of the Bible, which bore my signature, Joseph C. Boxley, Jr., Camp Lee, Richmond, Va. I at once oppend correspondence with Mr. C. S. Mills, of Packard, Green county, Jowa, whom I found exceedingly nice and courteous. He kindly sent me the Bible, which I recognized as one I had while a student at Richmond College about 1859.

The history of the Bible is quite wone of the state of the sent that N. W. Towners of year 1803 was given the Bible by a wounded Confederate soldier, near Savannah, Ga. This Confederate soldier was suffering greatly and asked Mr. Downes, ashe was passing to give him water. He readily responded giving him water, and otherwise making him comfortable as best he could, and as he was leaving the wounded soldier gave him this Bible which he carried to his home in ndiana after the close of the war.

The missing think is how this Bible got of the could have a suffering the ware of the war. The missing think is how this Bible got of the could be suffered to his home in ndiana after the close of the war.

The missing this is how this Bible got of the could be suffered to the could be suffered to the possession. Our regiment (the Twent he possession) are regiment. We misside the First Georgia Regiment. Wo misgled freely with those noble Georgias, and it may be that the Bible was mulaced in their hospitable camp. I am under grateful obligations to Mr. C. S. Mills, with whom I am still in correspondence and hope some day to meet him face to face, as a valued friend.

The sight of this Bible filled me with contact of the complete of ante-bellum days, retracing the patriotic emotions of a Confederate soldier for a cause dear and sacred; upon the ids of the Bible many a prayer for safety and victory have been offered to the Divine Ruler of all things and to-day I have it as a pilot through the vicissitudes of life's activity.

One of the really musical pleasures of the festival was the performance of the overture "Cocaigns" ((Elzar) by the orchestra. It is a finely constructed work, with many beautiful effects. The children's concert was as thoroughly delightful as it always is, and the chorus sang with confidence. Mr. Mercer has made this organization peculiarly his own, and it reflects great credit on him as a choral conductor.
